Section 2. Vacancies.

Vacancies in the Board of Directors may be filled for the unexpired term by a majority vote of the remaining Directors at any meeting of the Board of Directors at which a quorum is present.

Section 3. Resignation.

Any Director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Secretary or President. Such resignation shall take effect upon receipt or at the time specified in the notice.

Section 4. Removal.

Any Director who fails to perform their duties of office may be removed and their position shall be filled, as described Article V, Section 3.

Section 5. Powers and Duties of the Directors.

The Board of Directors shall have the general management of the affairs, property and business of this Corporation and, subject to these bylaws, may adopt such rules and regulations for that purpose and for the conduct of its meetings as the Board of Directors may deem proper.

Section 6. Nominating Committee.

The Board President may appoint a nominating committee which shall include a representative from the operating committee, a member of OKIE811 leadership, two of the appointed board members, two elected board members, and the Board President who will serve as the Committee Chair. Such nominating committee may recruit Directors to the Board from each class of membership, prior to the Annual Meeting of the membership.

ARTICLE VI - Meetings of Directors

Section 1. Annual Meeting.

The Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held in conjunction with the Annual Meeting of this Corporation for the purpose of electing officers, appointing committees and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. No notice shall be required for the Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Meetings.

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held once a quarter. Special Meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President. On the written request of any three (3) Directors to the President, the President shall call a meeting of the Board of Directors. Meetings shall be held at the office of this Corporation, or at any such other place as may be designated in the notice, as well as via internet and conference telephone.

Section 3. Notice of Meetings.

Except for the Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors, notice of the time, place, and purpose of any meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given, either written or verbal, not later than two (2) days prior to such meeting.

Section 4. Quorum.

At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the number of Directors in Office (excluding Advisory Directors) shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Directors connected to video or telephone conference, during which all Directors may hear and communicate with others, shall be deemed to be present at such meeting. Voting by advanced electronic ballot, email or conference call is allowed and should be documented in minutes and shared at the following scheduled Board meeting.

ARTICLE VII - Executive Committee

Section 1. Executive Committee

There shall be an Executive Committee, which shall consist of the (4) elected Officers of the Board; the Board may appoint an additional member of the Board to service on this committee if deemed necessary.

Section 2. Meetings.

Meetings of the Executive Committee may be called at any time by the President. On the written request of either of the other members of the Executive Committee to the President, the President shall call a meeting of the Executive Committee. Reasonable notice, written or verbal, shall be given of each meeting of the Executive Committee. Meetings of the Executive Committee shall be held at the office of this Corporation, or at such other place as may be designated in the notice, as well as via internet and conference telephone.

Section 3. Quorum.

At all meetings of the Executive Committee, a majority of all the members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Voting by email or conference call is allowed and actionable items should be documented in minutes and shared at the following scheduled Board meeting.

Section 4. Powers and Duties.

The Executive Committee shall have full power to act in all matters for the Board of Directors in the interims between the meetings of the Board of Directors. When, in these bylaws, powers and duties are designated to the Board of Directors, those powers and duties are designated to the Executive Committee as well without exception. The Executive Committee, however, shall be subject to the control of the Board of Directors and shall carry out all instructions issued to it by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VIII - Other Committees

Section 1. Establishment.

The Board of Directors shall establish an operating, legal, and such other committees as it deems appropriate to advise it on matters affecting the business and affairs of this Corporation and the notification center. The members of these committees need not be Directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Memberships and Duties.

Each committee shall have the number of members and such duties as the Board of Directors shall deem appropriate.

Section 3. Meetings.

Each such committee shall meet on the call of its chairman, upon not less than five (5) days prior written or verbal notice, the Chairman of each such committee to be designated by the President of this Corporation and to serve at his pleasure. Meetings can be held in person, via internet and/or via conference telephone.

ARTICLE IX - Officers, Executive Director and Duties

Section 1. Officers.

The officers of this Corporation shall consist of a President, one or more Vice-President, a Treasurer, and a Secretary, all of whom shall be chosen from the Board of Directors and by the Directors at the Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors. Any vacancy in any office shall be filled by the Board of Directors. Any vacancy in any office shall be filled by the Board of Directors at any regular meeting, or at any Special Meeting called for such purpose. This Corporation may also have such other officers or agents as the Board of Directors may deem necessary, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and who shall have such authority and perform such duties as the Board of Directors may prescribe.

Section 2. Board President.

The Board President shall chair the Board of Directors. The Board President may execute such obligations or instruments for and in the name of this Corporation as may be authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors. The Board President shall chair the Executive Committee and shall serve as an honorary member of all other committees. The Board President shall perform all such other duties as are incidental to the office or as are properly required by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Vice-President.

The Vice-President shall have such powers and discharge such duties as may be assigned to them from time to time by the Board of Directors or the President.

Section 4. Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall have general supervision over the care and custody of the funds and securities of this Corporation and shall deposit the same or cause the same to be deposited in the name of this Corporation in such bank or banks, trust company or trust companies, as the Board of Directors may designate. They shall keep or cause to be kept full and accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements of this Corporation and whenever required by the Board of Directors, he shall render or cause to be rendered financial statements of this Corporation.

Section 5. Secretary.

The Secretary shall keep the minutes and act as Secretary of all meetings of this Corporation and of the Board of Directors. They shall be the custodian of the corporate records and of the corporate seal and shall see that the corporate seal is affixed to all documents, execution of which, on behalf of this Corporation, under the seal is duly authorized, and when so affixed may attest the same. They shall in general perform all duties usually incident to the office of the Secretary and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him/her by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Executive Director

The Executive Director shall be the chief executive officer of this Corporation and, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, shall have general charge and management of the business affairs and property of this Corporation, its officers, agents, and employees, if any. The Executive Director, except as the Board of Directors may from time to time otherwise provide by resolution, shall sign all contracts and other instruments in the ordinary business of this Corporation and for and in the name of this Corporation may execute such other obligations or instruments as may be authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors. They shall prepare, execute and file any annual report or reports, statement or statements, which may be required by law. They shall perform all such other duties as are incident to their office or as properly are required of him/her by the Board of Directors. Submit to the control of the Board executive committee to follow the guidelines of the Succession Plan and review by the full board.

Section 7. Compensation of Officers.

The officers of this Corporation shall receive such compensation, if any, as may be considered from time to time by the Board of Directors. The Board shall be responsible for the hiring and annual evaluation of the Executive Director and set their compensation.

Section 8. Bonds.

The Board of Directors shall have power to require any officer, agent, or employee of this Corporation to give bonds for the faithful discharge of his duties in such form and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Directors may deem advisable.

ARTICLE X - Negotiable Instruments

Section 1. Signature on Checks, etc.

All checks, drafts, bills of exchange, notes or other obligations or orders for the payment of money shall be signed in the name of this Corporation by such officer or officers, person or persons as the Board of Directors of this Corporation may from time to time designate by resolution.

ARTICLE XI - Indemnification

Section 1. Good Faith Actions.

This Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding (including appeals), whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of this Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of this Corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of this Corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of this Corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Exclusion for Negligence or Misconduct.

This Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit (including appeals) by or in the right of this Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of this Corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of this Corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to this Corporation unless and only to the extent that the District Court or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the District Court or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Fees and Expenses.

To the extent that a director, officer, employee, or agent of this Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article XI or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection therewith.

Section 4. Coverage Determined by Board of Directors.

Any indemnification under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article XI (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by this Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the officer, director, employee, or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article XI. Such determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit, or proceeding; or (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel (who may be regular counsel to this Corporation but who shall not be an employee of this Corporation) in a written opinion; or (c) by the members.

Section 5. Advance Payment for Fees and/or Expenses.

Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding may be paid by this Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee, or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by this Corporation as authorized in this Article XI.

Section 6. Nonexclusive Remedy.

The indemnification provided by this Article XI shall apply to acts and transactions occurring heretofore or hereafter and shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification are entitled under any statute, certificate or articles of incorporation, bylaw, agreement, vote of the General Member or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his/hers official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent and shall insure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person.

Section 7. Oklahoma Business Corporation Act.

In furtherance, and not in limitation of the foregoing provisions of this Article XI, this Corporation shall indemnify the persons referred to in this Article XI to the fullest extent permitted by the Oklahoma Business Corporation Act, as amended from time to time.

Section 8. Insurance Coverage.

This Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of this Corporation, against any liability asserted against him/her and incurred by him/her in any such capacity, or arising out of his/hers status as such, whether or not this Corporation would have the power to indemnify him/her against such liability under the provisions of this Article XI.

ARTICLE XII - Amendments

These bylaws may be altered or repealed, or new bylaws may be adopted by a majority vote of a quorum of the members of the Board of Directors at any Annual, Regular, or Special Meeting duly convened after notice to the directors setting out the purpose of the meeting, subject to the power of the members to alter or repeal such bylaws; provided, however, the Board shall not adopt or alter any bylaw fixing their number, qualifications, or classifications or terms of office, but any such bylaw may be adopted or altered only by the vote of a majority of a quorum of the members entitled to exercise the voting power of this Corporation at any Annual, Regular, or Special Meeting duly convened after notice to the members setting out the purpose of the meeting. Approved changes to the By-Laws are to be filed with the IRS.
